SEISMIC SURVEY COMMENCES AT VATIC'S SAKSRITHAI POTASH PROJECT.

Vancouver, March 16, 2017. Vatic Ventures Corp. (NEX:VCV.H) (the Company) is pleased to announce that it has now commenced the first phase of its exploration and development project for the Saksrithai potash project in Thailand: a 2-D seismic survey of the license area.

The seismic programme is designed to demonstrate the continuity of the underlying geological structure and provide information regarding the depth to, and thickness of, the potash-bearing layer. The programme will consist of up to 40 line-kilometres of seismic survey.

The seismic contractor, Geocon Co. Ltd. (Geocon), has mobilised its crew and equipment to the project area and has completed a 1km test line to demonstrate the depth to the target horizons and determine the optimum geophone spacing for the survey.

Geocon is a well-qualified seismic contractor with some 30 years in potash exploration, with particular knowledge of the potash deposits within the Khorat evaporite basin where the Company's Saksrithai project is situated. Geocon has provided services to a number of potash projects in Thailand and Laos, including Asia Pacific Resources' successful project at Udon Thani, Thailand.

Dr. Gerry Wright, the Company's CEO, commented "We are excited to commence the exploration of the Saksrithai potash project. The seismic survey will enhance our technical knowledge of the project area and facilitate planning for the initial drilling programme for the project".

About Saksrithai Development Co. Ltd: Saksrithai Development Co. Ltd. (Saksrithai), is a private Thai company which is the holder of two contiguous Special Prospecting Licences (SPLs) for potash exploration, issued in 2015. The licenses encompass an area of 32 km<sup>2</sup> in Nakhon Ratchasima province, northeast Thailand and are adjacent to Thai Kali Company's Dan Khun Thod potash mine which is currently under construction.

The Company's 80% shareholding in Saksrithai has now been registered with the Thai Ministry of Commerce. Vatic is entitled to nominate four of the five Directors of Saksrithai and Dr. Gerry Wright acts as Saksrithai's Managing Director.
